ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thank You.

Thank you to everyone for your kind words, thoughts, prayers, cards, gifts, mass intentions and loving support during these past months as my family cared for our mom, Agnes Brunory and during our loss. My brother John Brunory, sister Patti Ferree, our family and I are humbled by the love and support showered on us during this difficult time. We have been blessed to have the comfort of dear friends and family surround us when we needed your help. We especially want to thank Fr. Bump for his many years of friendship to Mom and Dad and his spiritual guidance through these last months. Words cannot express how thankful we are for each one of you.

Gospel Meditation for the Seventh Sunday of Easter

“So that they may be one, as we are one, in them and you in me.” Does technology bring us together, or does it remind us of distance and differences and keep us apart? Most days, I’m not so sure. With the constant inundation of news from across the world, it can be easier to tune out the sufferings and the joys of people we’ll never meet, in places we’ll never visit. But is this the invitation of Jesus?

Over the centuries, our Church has become truly universal across the globe. There are Christians across nations and cultures, across lines of rich and poor. There are Christians who live behind white picket fences, and Christians dying in conflict zones. “That they may all be one,” Jesus prays. One in what? Love. “That the love with which you loved me may be in them.” This is easier said than done, of course. The world is far too vast for us to individually love every human being. I can hardly remember the names of half the regulars at my Sunday Mass! But that doesn’t mean we can’t try.

“I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word.” Jesus had this religious popular explosion in mind. The mission and message of Christ was not meant to stop in the Apostle’s generation or stay cordoned off in the geographic confines of Israel. Jesus’ words at the Last Supper are a prayer, a plea to the Father for the spread and unity of the Church across time and space. This week, look up organizations supporting the persecuted Church and make a donation. Next week, visit a struggling parish within your own diocese. When you meet someone new at hospitality Sunday, invite them over for dinner to get to know them better. Whether far off or close to home, let’s allow Jesus’ prayer to live in us, to be drawn together in love.

Eric’s Music Notes

Psalm 97 is a generic text about the glory of God that would be easy to sing without much thought. But in the context of the first reading and gospel, it is not a casual song. The first reading recounts the story of Stephen’s martyrdom. To testify to the mystery of Christ before unbelieving crowds means to risk one’s life for one’s faith. The gospel reveals Jesus praying that his disciples may remain one with him and the Father. To remain one with Christ means undergoing death for the sake of others. To sing this psalm, then, is to choose to lay down your life in belief and love. Are you willing to sing it? (Cry Out With Joy, GIA Publications)

To sing this psalm also means that we share our faith with others. Our Recessional, Go! Make of All Disciples, continues the Ascension theme, in which we are called to be ambassadors for Christ. We are the Church, and it is our mission to spread the Good News of Christ to those we meet in our daily lives. Through our words and actions, the Love is Christ is shared. Our Preparation Hymn, Let All Things Now Living, reminds us of the many gifts we have received. We were fashioned and made in the image of God, protected and guided. All creation proclaims His glory, even the hills, mountains, rivers proclaim God divine. Our Communion Hymn, At That First Eucharist reminds us that we are to be one bread, one body through the Unity to which we are called. May we be brought together in ever greater unity through the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

WE ARE RAISING THE ROOF! UPDATE!
The roof repair has been completed!

The project total came in $13,300.00 over budget and most of that cost was for replacing water soaked plywood. The contractor need 114 sheets of 5/8" plywood to raise the new roof! Fr. Bump invited our parishioners to help "Raise the Roof" by donating to the cost of the plywood and the response has been outstanding! If anyone has not contributed to "Raising the Roof" you might want to donate the cost of a sheet of plywood or two.

The going price for the grade of wood needed is about $50.00 per sheet. If you would like to donate to the project, place your donation in an envelope marked "Roof" and drop it in the collection basket or see Fr. Bump or Paula. Thank you for considering a donation to the project!
