Eric’s Music Notes

In the first reading we hear the dramatic story of the first Pentecost. In the second reading from 1 Corinthians, the Spirit makes us one body with many gifts. In the second reading from Romans, the Spirit makes us children of God. In the Gospel from John 20, the Spirit empowers us to forgive sins. In the psalm we pray for renewal – of our knowledge of all that Jesus taught us, of our unity as one body, of our life as God’s children, of our willingness to forgive one another; of our commitment to speak the message of salvation in such a way that any and all will understand. May the Spirit who gives, maintains, and renews life do all of this for us! (Cry Out With Joy, GIA Publications)

Today we conclude our celebration of Easter with the glorious Solemnity of Pentecost. The disciples receive the Holy Spirit, and the power to forgive sin. Our hymns today, Come, Holy Ghost, Creator Spirit By Whose Aid and The Spirit Sends Us Forth, all celebrate this awesome coming of the Advocate. Our Communion Hymn, One Bread, One Body, echoes the second reading from Corinthians. Though we are many parts, though we have different gifts, whether we are Gentile or Jew, servant or free, we are indeed one body, one Church. We may not personally see the tongues of fire descending, but we have received the Holy Spirit just as the disciples did, not only at our own Confirmation, but today. Yet in our unity, we all are different. It is through those differences, the various points of our life and faith journeys that we are brought together here to worship the Lord, to serve him in His Church, and to share in the Sacraments. Let’s pray that we will be united as a faith community, trusting, following, listening, loving, and holding the peace of Christ in our hearts.

Gospel Meditation

PENTECOST SUNDAY, JUNE 9

"God is always more." Have you ever heard that? If we truly believe that He is infinite, then this statement is worth exploring. Today, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit in power upon the early Church. But Pentecost wasn't the first time the disciples received the Holy Spirit. The Gospel actually occurs chronologically before Pentecost. Soon after the Resurrection, Jesus already "came and stood in their midst... he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

God is always more. Sometimes we might think the grace of God as one and done. God might break through in people's lives, but it's a one-time event on a retreat or preceding a dramatic conversion of life. But there's always more to come. Even today's Gospel isn't the first time the breath of God stirred. In Genesis, it's God's breath that stirs life into Adam in the garden. Jesus breathes on the Apostles, giving them the Holy Spirit in the quiet and silence. Later, that breath will stir into a "driving wind", and the Spirit will descend with flame...not unlike Moses on Mount Sinai.

God is always more. He has spoken throughout salvation history, and continues to speak into our lives through His Church and through the Holy Spirit alive in our hearts. This Pentecost Sunday, let us come before Him with expectant hearts! Like the disciples in the Gospel and first reading, let us await what "more" God will do.

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, fan into flame the gifts I received in my Baptism and Confirmation.

I want to receive the fire of Your love as Your disciples did at Pentecost.

Come with wonder and awe, with wisdom, understanding, and counsel, with courage and faith in You.

Holy Spirit, may my actions witness to Your presence in my life.

Help me to see the ways my strengths can serve others in their weakness.

In all my interactions, I want to radiate love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Breathe new life into the world through me.

Amen.
WE ARE RAISING THE ROOF! UPDATE!
The roof repair has been completed! The project total came in $13,300.00 over budget and most of that cost was for replacing water soaked plywood. The contractor need 114 sheets of 5/8” plywood to raise the new roof! Fr. Bump invited our parishioners to help “Raise the Roof” by donating to the cost of the plywood and the response has been outstanding and Fr. Bump wishes to THANK all who have given a gift towards the project! If anyone has not contributed to “Raising the Roof” you might want to donate the cost of a sheet of plywood or two. The going price for the grade of wood needed is about $50.00 per sheet. If you would like to donate to the project, place your donation in an envelope marked “Roof” and drop it in the collection basket or see Fr. Bump or Paula. Thank you for considering a donation to the project!
