ANNOUNCEMENTS

TRINITY SUNDAY

INFINITE TIME, INFINITE SPACE, INFINITE LOVE — AAAAAAAAAARGH!!!! I CAN'T STAND IT!!

HE'S BEEN TRYING TO FIGURE OUT GOD FOR THE LAST THREE DAYS. LOOKS LIKE HE MADE A BREAKTHROUGH.

The Most Holy Trinity

If God is one, how can He be three? The most intelligent theologians have racked their brains over the problem, and the most prayerful ones have surrendered to the mystery. How can it be, we can’t explain. But what it means, we can join! Our God is an ever-unfolding relationship. Theologians speak of the immanent and economic Trinity. The Trinity is immanent in the sense that the Persons are close and entirely sufficient within Godself. In other words, God doesn’t require us for God to exist. The word economic is rooted in the Greek word for management of a household or family. The Trinity is economic in the sense that God has invited us to be part of Him. He’s growing the family! We see the dynamic here in today’s Gospel.

Jesus says the Spirit “will take from what is mine and declare it to you” and that “everything that the Father has is mine.” There is relationship here. Jesus speaks (and is) the word of the Father. The Holy Spirit speaks what He hears from the Son. The Father gives everything to the Son, and the Spirit speaks that inheritance over us. God invites us into the Trinitarian family!

The doctrine of the Trinity isn’t something to brush off as overwhelming. After all, “the Spirit of truth… will guide you to all truth.” This occurs most perfectly in the Church, who protects all that has been revealed by God in Scripture and gradually unpacked in tradition. We can trust the declarations of Her theologians and learn from the lives of Her saints. The Trinity may be a mystery, but, by the grace of God, we can have real truth about who God is and how we can love like Him.

Eric’s Music Notes

On this solemnity of the Holy Trinity, Psalm 8 surprises us by speaking about how important we are. We may be puny compared to the magnitude of the universe, yet God crowns us with glory and honor. The Wisdom of God delights in us (first reading). The Spirit of God fills our hearts with divine love (second reading) and our minds with truths beyond our grasp (gospel). We human beings are amazingly significant in the eyes of Triune God! With this in mind, how might you look at everyone you meet this week? How might you look at yourself? (Cry Out With Joy, GIA Publications)

Understanding the concept of the Trinity has never been easy. In fact, the church struggled with the idea of one God in three persons for some time in its history. We may not entirely grasp the theology, but we can understand the single, clear message revealed in the Hebrew scriptures and the Gospel. We are deeply loved and encountered by a God who is with us and is shown to us in many ways and through many faces, and we are never alone. We are called to live with this generous reality and to share it with one another. Our hymns today, Holy Holy Holy, O God, Almighty Father, and Holy God, We Praise Thy Name, help us to celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity. They speak of the triune God, giving praise to Father, Son and Holy Spirit. But not only in praise, but also in action, we are to spread the name of the Trinity, “swelling the loud refrain”, to those whom we encounter. In friendship, we surrender ourselves to another in trust. In this imitation of God's inner life, we participate in the Trinity.

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts. You are our model of a loving father.

When we fail and fall short of your expectations, you are always there at the end of the day with open arms, ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.

Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.

Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.

Scripture Verse

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." - Jn 16:13-14

Scripture Verse

"He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." - Jn 16:14-15

WE ARE RAISING THE ROOF! UPDATE!
The roof repair has been completed!
The project total came in $13,300.00 over budget and most of that cost was for replacing water soaked plywood.
The contractor need 114 sheets of 5/8” plywood to raise the new roof! Fr. Bump invited our parishioners to help “Raise the Roof” by donating to the cost of the plywood and the response has been outstanding and Fr. Bump wishes to THANK all who have given a gift towards the project! If anyone has not contributed to “Raising the Roof” you might want to donate the cost of a sheet of plywood or two.
The going price for the grade of wood needed is about $50.00 per sheet. If you would like to donate to the project, place your donation in an envelope marked “Roof” and drop it in the collection basket or see Fr. Bump or Paula. Thank you for considering a donation to the project!
