Gospel Meditation

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that “the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.” As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ—our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it overburden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT MASS SCHEDULES

Please note that the Mass Schedule will change beginning July 1, 2019.

The changes will be made available to the parishioners as soon as possible so that you may make plans for attending Mass.

At this time no change is anticipated in the weekend Mass schedule.

These changes are necessary to accommodate the Pastor’s schedule and so make weekday Masses available to both Churches.

Thank You!

Fr. Bump wishes to express his thanks to all the kind and generous people at Holy Family Parish for the love and support that they have given to him during the months that he served as Administer Pro Tem.

Fr. Bump is especially thankful for all who helped with the many improvements made inside and outside the Church. Thanks to all who helped with the many projects, decorated at the holidays, took care of the landscaping and planted flowers, cared for the linens, the choir and all the ministers, staff members and especially the parishioners who faithfully attended Mass and supported the Church.

He also sends his warmest gratitude to everyone for their prayers, well wishes, cards and gifts that he received at his farewell party.

Please continue to keep Fr. Bump in your thoughts and prayers as he catches up on some well-deserved rest and relaxation!
Eric’s Music Notes

The first reading speaks of a future time when God will feed and comfort the people as a mother nurses her child. When we see these “awesome deeds” (psalm) all our mourning will be changed into rejoicing (first reading). The gospel shows Jesus working to bring this future about by sending his disciples out to spread peace, heal illness, overcome evil, and announce the kingdom. In these verses from Psalm 66 you, too, announce the kingdom. You call all the earth to “Come and see” what God is doing. You make the future happen. (Cry Out With Joy, GIA Publications)

Our Opening Hymn, Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven, has a rich history. Its text, which is based on Psalm 103, was written by Anglican Clergyman Henry Francis Lyte. It is used frequently in England and was used in the 1947 wedding of HRH the Princess Elizabeth, now Queen Elizabeth II, and Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh. It was also used as the opening hymn at the 2018 funeral of former US President George H.W. Bush. In the mid-nineteenth century, the pressure was on hymn writers to keep their versifications of psalms as close to the Scriptural text as possible. Henry F. Lyte would have none of this however, and boldly published a book of psalm paraphrases entitled Spirit of the Psalms. Lyte decided he could maintain the spirit of these beautiful texts while still using his own words, probably with the intention of making the reader see the psalms in a new light. One such paraphrase is “Praise, my Soul, the King of Heaven.” Lyte’s text speaks to the love of God and our dependence on Him in a clear and imaginative way. Think of what might happen if we woke up every day with these words on our lips: “Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, evermore His praises sing.” How would our lives change if we walked through our days singing “Alleluia!” or through our times of sorrow declaring that we rest in the gentle hand of God? This is a text with beautiful imagery and thoughtful prose that, like Psalm 103, gives us words to praise our God with heart, mind, and soul.
